Slides Block Canyon Line—Traffic on the Ogden canyon line of the Ogden Rapid Transit company was interrupted yesterday afternoon and today by rock slides between the mouth of the canyon and the Hermitage. This morning the rock slides caused several trees to fall across the track near the Hermitage and Lewis' camp, and it required several hours for the gang of men at work in the canyon to clear the track for traffic. The heavy rains during the past few days have loosened the rock and earth along the line, and where there are many cuts slides are frequent. Further trouble is anticipated.

WOODMEN TO LOVE FEAST GREET BOAK AT WEBER CLUB

HEAD CONSUL OF PACIFIC JURISDICTION HERE TONIGHT.

Special Train Will Bring Large Number of Woodmen of the World From Salt Lake.

I. I. Boak, head consul of the Pacific Jurisdiction of the Woodmen of the World, will pay the Ogden camp his annual call this evening. The visit will be the occasion for the initiation of a large number into the mysteries of woodcraft. At Salt Lake City, last evening, Mr. Boak took charge of the initiation of a class of one hundred and forty. Tomorrow evening he goes to Logan to visit that camp. For the initiation in Ogden this evening, which takes place in the Woodmen's hall at the corner of Twenty-fourth street and Washington avenue, over the Utah National bank, two hundred Woodmen from Salt Lake City will arrive in the city on a special train at 7 o'clock. Owing to the inclement weather, there will be no parade, but following the initiation a banquet will be given and an orchestra will be in attendance.

IN POLICE COURT.

In the criminal division of the Municipal court this morning James Morgan, an alleged "vag," forfeited $10 bail for non-appearance.

Ed Johnson, a negro, was arraigned on the charge of vagrancy. He stated to the court that he was not ready for trial, nor was he ready to plead to the complaint. He was placed under $100 bonds for his appearance in court tomorrow morning.

Tony Bordini declared that he was not guilty of disturbing the peace, as alleged in a complaint filed against him. The case was set for hearing tomorrow morning.

Evidently T. Andrews did not care to hear the testimony that the city had against him on the charge of drunkenness, alleged to have been committed December 1, for he did not trial this morning. His bail of $10 was declared forfeited.

"Juan Belvira, Bill Jones, Kissata Runa and John Doe (all Mexicans) are charged with wilfully and maliciously walking over the Sonan Pacific yards on the 1st day of December, 1909," said Clerk Fulton, this morning. "What do you plead, guilty or not guilty?"

No response.

"Are you guilty, or not guilty?" said the clerk, in a higher tone of voice.

"Still nothing doing."

"Can any of you men speak English?" interposed the court.

"No, savvy," same the reply in chorus.

"Guess we had better let these men go. If Detective Pender will guarantee to make them understand that they must get out of the city," was the order of the Judge.

Every man fancies that to a woman a box of candy is as good as an apology, a bunch of violets better than an explanation and a kiss a perfect substitute for an excuse.

MEMBERS OF BOARD OF EDUCATION MEET TEACHERS.

Plates for Thirty-five With a Plate or Two Added—Evening of Pleasure.

Last evening the city board of education coupled business with a happy love feast. The principals and teachers of the city schools visited the Salt Lake schools a few days ago, and the superintendent concluded to have them make a report of their observations to the board of education at the offices of the board. The board members were advised of this decision and they were "cordially" invited to attend the meeting and get posted regarding Salt Lake schools. The board refused to accept the invitation to meet at the board's offices in the city building, but "cordially" invited the superintendent, supervisors and principals to meet them—the members of the board—at the Weber club rooms, if they desired to transact business. It is needless to say that the principals and supervisors quickly responded to the call.

Thirty-five of the pedagogues gathered at the Weber club to see what the board had in store for them. They discovered plates for thirty-five, and then enough more for the accommodation of the board members. The feast was great. It was highly enjoyed by all present. Good will prevailed and the board of education and the working forces of the city schools were brought closer together and learned much of each other. It was said at the banquet table that perfect harmony prevails in the schools today and that there are no "knockers" of any kind.

The principals and supervisors reported that they returned from the Salt Lake schools with some new ideas regarding school work which would be put into practice for the betterment of the Ogden schools. They said, however, that the Ogden schools, in some respects, are ahead of the Salt Lake schools.

SECOND WARD BAZAAR IS A GREAT SUCCESS

One of the most successful bazars held in Ogden in a number of months was that given at the Second Ward Amusement Hall last evening by the Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement association of the ward. The affair was largely attended and a neat little sum was obtained.

In the hall were numerous booths at which dolls, aprons, hand-bags, various articles of fancy work, cakes and candies were sold. The booths were tastefully decorated and were presided over by charming young ladies. At the conclusion of the bazaar, at which everything was disposed of, those present spent the evening dancing. Regardless of the inclement weather there was a large number of people present.

The young ladies to whom the success of the bazaar is due are the following: Rosabel Scowcroft, Elda Pingree, Hazel Browning, Emma G. Wilcox, Meda McQuay, Grace Harris, Myrtle Jenkins, Elva Littlefield, Ada Riley, Ada Stevens, Bessie Lindquist and Esther Harris.

The music of the evening was furnished by Beatrice Boyle, Verdie Pingree and Carl Lindquist. Milton Purdy, as floor manager for the dance, rendered appreciated assistance to the young ladies in charge of the affair.
